Fierce Performance

From our Vented Gasket design to our Torsion-Lock™ temples and A-Force™ engineered lenses—ARSENAL shows no mercy on the competition

Killer Style

A full reserve of strength and good looks—combining flash-coated mirror lenses and continuous streamlined frames.

Armed and Fully Loaded

ARSENAL is loaded with firepower and delivers protection, performance and styling in full reserve including:

- ▶ Vented Gasket lens technology provides air-flow for optimal vision clarity
- ▶ Flash-coated mirror lenses for excellent vision and low backside reflection
- ▶ Solid styling with Torsion-Lock temples for head-hugging fit
- ▶ A-Force engineered lenses for extreme safety
- ▶ Universal fit with gel-tech nose bridge for all day comfort
- ▶ Complete with sturdy, fortified hard shell storage case

Not only are AOSafety products superior, but we outflank the competition in merchandising and marketing as well. Our killer packaging will stop your customers in their tracks. Graphic design and photography convey product strength and performance while the value-added hard-shell case delivers a direct hit for explosive sales.
